

Fifth Sunday in Lent

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

Hymns of Celebration (10:30am)

Todd Davison

Prelude (10:55am)

Welcome and Call to Worship (Isaiah 58:6–9)

Jamie Varvaro

*Hymn of Praise

“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing” CCS 87

Prayer for Peace

Mary Hammond

Light the peace candle.

Offer a prayer focused on peace for those who are oppressed, hungry, and homeless as described in the call to worship.

Response

Reading of Lectionary Scripture: John 11:1–45

Extinguishing of the Fifth Lenten Candle and Lenten Journey

Todd Davison

Disciples’ Generous Response

Amy Hoechler

Scripture: Psalm 112:5, 9a

Oblation Sunday Statement

All loose funds given on the first Sunday of the month are received for the Mission Initiative Abolish Poverty, End Suffering. How does our generosity provide opportunities for a new life for others?

Blessing and Receiving of Mission Tithes

Hymn of Confession

“Brothers and Sisters of Mine” CCS 616

Communion Message

Apostle Janné Grover

Hymn of Preparation

“O Lord, How Can It Be” CCS 529

Scripture of Sacrament - Doctrine and Covenants 164:4c

Jamie Varvaro

Blessing and Serving of the Bread and Wine

Pastoral Prayer

Matt Britt

*Hymn of Sending Forth

“Great Is Thy Faithfulness” CCS 11

*Sending Forth

Jamie Varvaro

“Be kind. Be gentle. Be patient.
Magnify your gifts
and seek joyfully to make a positive difference within your circle of influence.
Live with enthusiasm,
love with compassion,
learn with humility,
and leave a legacy of hope.”

Postlude